

Waterloo High School Waterloo, IL

"Taco Hydronic Solutions Software (HSS) system proved to be a great time saver for us. It helped minimize errors, allowed us to check and then guarantee our design with Taco, and to link in associated disciplines such as electrical, plumbing, condensate piping and controls into the system design."

Tom Baker — President of Hurst-Rosche Engineers

Photo (L-R): Don Behrmann, President, Behrmann Co., Mark Frederick, President Custom Mechanical, Doug Davis, Behrmann Co., Mark Ritter, Design Architects, and Tom Baker, President of Hurst-Rosche Engineers/Design Architects.

Hurst-Rosche Engineers/Design Architects designed the new Waterloo, Illinois High School "one-pipe" HVAC System using TACO software. This design maximizes operating system efficiency and ensures that the first costs are low.